Chapter 1

Your individuality. Your personality. Your emotional needs. Your mentality.

To find the ideal profession, you have to know yourself first. There are activities you are suited for according to your nature, and others you are not. Your ideal occupation should favor the expression of your individuality (Sun) and your personality (Rising Sign), satisfy your emotional needs (Moon) and permit the development of your intellect (Mercury).

YOUR INDIVIDUALITY: Sun in Virgo

You were born under the sign of VIRGO and your ruling planet is Mercury, which endows you with outstanding mental qualities.

Your Sun sign is MUTABLE and this will impel you to function as a COMMUNICATOR, either in thought or action. You won't feel comfortable in a leadership position, but rather in a subordinate position or service. One of your functions is to help others to solve their problems.

Virgo is an EARTH sign and this makes you realistic, practical and concrete. You will have a strong desire to accomplish material goals and need to feel that your career or enterprises permit you to grow a little more each year.

You are shy, intelligent and analytical and want to have everything in order in your surroundings. You have a strong practical sense of life and can easily solve your problems and tasks. You are very responsible and industrious, but may lack a sense of pride. Waiting for recognition from others could result in deceptions and could easily hurt your feelings. You give excessively to others and because of this you forego many of your personal ambitions.

Your natural shyness allows you to have a very rich inner life with very deep feelings. You are very loyal with your friendships; they probably will not be many, but they will be lasting. You have great ability to analyze, see the details of each situation and want to make everything perfect. You are very demanding with yourself and your nervousness could affect your health.

You were born to study, to develop your intelligence, to organize, to solve problems, to put in order, and mainly, to serve. One of your missions is to see that those around you discover and develop their potential. Your ability to analyze and see the details will teach others to be more penetrating and try to do things in a more perfect manner. You were born to cure, to alleviate and solve material problems as well as those involving health.

To evolve, your spirit needs to learn to develop greater self-confidence. You will have to conquer your fears, your insecurity and the shyness that immobilizes you at times, as well as the tendency to hypochondria, to generate your health problems and to limit your own freedom. You should avoid skeptical, somber and cold attitudes, or the tendency to exaggerate, criticize and be negative. The expression of your personality could be limited by hysterics and diseases or the tendency to think too much about things and not to act on them.

YOUR PERSONALITY: Ascendant Virgo

Others see you as an intelligent, practical, industrious and efficient person. You exhibit your ability to see the details and to solve daily problems, especially other people's problems.

In spite of your great abilities, you have a big disadvantage: your insecurity. You have an inner shyness and a need for reaffirmation from others and because of this, you become stressed, make sacrifices, are complacent and repress your aggressiveness. You are delicate and emotionally complex. Most of the time you give much more than you receive in hopes of finding a reciprocal attitude in others, but in this you are sure to be disillusioned. You have to learn to express all characteristics of your Sun sign (described previously) with freedom and security. You are inclined to analyze each step you take too much and in the end may not accomplish anything.

The profession you choose will have to allow you to express your sense of order, your need of serving, curing, helping and solving other's problems; avoid working in tense places, under the supervision of aggressive people, or where you can't expect stability and security for your future.

YOUR EMOTIONAL NEEDS: Moon in Cancer

Your emotions are very deep and intense, and you are strongly attached to your loved ones. You love and respect your traditions and ancestors, and you want to take root in a place, feeling that your home is your castle. You are very careful, thrifty and economical with your possessions and money.

You love home life and the security it represents. You express your feelings in a peaceful, agreeable and harmonious way and can't tolerate tense or aggressive situations. You prefer to discuss things quietly and seek isolation in times of crisis. Your strong intuition allows you to clearly see what occurs within another person. You have psychic as well as artistic abilities, especially in music, poetry and drama.

Your strong protective instinct toward your loved ones inclines you to act as a mother to everyone. You are always willing to give moral support and to help when necessary. Very sensitive, you can identify with and may even take on the pain of others yourself. Because of your susceptibility, your feelings can also be easily hurt.

Subconsciously, you have a strong fear of growing old and being alone. In previous lives you may have suffered mandatory dependency on your family, perhaps due to an illness that was limiting you, or because of unavoidable traditional pressures. From these experiences originate your current strong dependencies, your inner insecurity, the fear of abandonment and the search for protection in the people you are closest to. You are afraid that you are not strong enough and this leads you to develop negative, headstrong, domineering or manipulative behavior. You have to learn to rely on your own resources and to release others from the ties you impose on them. Your subconscious mind will be very active in this incarnation and you are likely to have accurate and clear recollections of previous life situations.

The profession you choose will have to satisfy your emotional need to nurture others, to teach, to protect, to heal, to feel useful, and at the same time it must give you a feeling of finding security, familiarity, and the possibility of setting down roots and expressing your great sensibility.

YOUR MENTALITY: Mercury in Virgo

You have a very analytical and logical mind which allows to see the details of each situation. You are very intelligent and have the ability to understand difficult and abstract problems. You look for perfection in everything you do, but if you feel that you cannot achieve it, you will quit. You are very devoted to studies, especially when you feel that you are studying a useful and practical subject. You have a very critical vision of the world and are very demanding with your job as well as with your personal relationships; you easily discover the mistakes or weaknesses of others.

Your way of communicating could be quite limited because you are very shy. Your logical and impersonal mind tends to make you impartial and detached. You may have a lot of interest in scientific and research projects, in medicine, hygiene, nutrition, mathematics, etc. Also, your penchant for observation will allow you to capture the characteristic behavior of people around you, and you enjoy doing imitations of them. You are very honest, but may be intolerant with less intelligent people or you may become too skeptical.

Chapter 2

Your abilities and your emotions, inhibitions and strengths.

Hidden talents or challenges, Karma.

The location of the planets in the houses and the relationship between them can increase or decrease their power. Aspects of the Sun are related to our strength and those of the Moon affect the emotional world and are expressed on a subconscious level.

Aspects that affect your INDIVIDUALITY:

Sun in 12th house:

You are likely to have strong personal insecurities that cause you to devalue yourself and stay in second place, especially if you are under the age of thirty. It is necessary for you to raise your self-esteem so that you can reach greater material achievements in your life.

The relationship to your father may have been complex or absent, and this generates a weak character and insecurity about pursuing your own goals.

Your success is related to service activities and you could do well in institutions for the underprivileged or needy, such as hospitals, asylums or jails etc., where you will be able to channel your sensibility and protective attitude. Or you could do well pursuing a profession linked to medicine or to the hidden sciences.

Sun conjunct Mercury:

You have a powerful mind, but can become very inflexible and stubborn in your opinions. It is important for you to think things through more thoroughly to avoid making premature decisions. You are ardent and tenacious in your projects and are very ambitious and creative in all of your undertakings.

Your mind is likely to be much faster than your body, which makes you feel that there never is enough time in a day and that you have to do everything immediately, or that other people hold you back. To avoid stress, you will have to organize your time in accordance with the tasks you are planning to undertake.

Sun Conjunct Uranus:

You are likely to have unconventional ideas and won't adhere to any traditions and formalities. You will always be different from others, which could bring criticism or gossip about you. Very creative and original, you could have much success in professions that require these qualities. You also could excel in some political activity. You are always looking for something new and unusual and can't tolerate any kind of routine.

Sun Conjunct Pluto:

You usually are in control of every situation because of your firm and honest opinions. You like to have control and tend to manipulate others to achieve your objectives. You have to learn to avoid selfishness, intolerance and inflexibility, otherwise you could become tyrannical and authoritarian with others. Throughout your life you may experience deep and total changes that will put your capabilities and strength to test.

Aspects that affect your EMOTIONS:

Moon in 11th house:

You are likely to do well in organizational work or group activities. You can coordinate and direct or simply find great satisfaction in participating in groups. You tend to have many important friends, especially female friendships, that will be with you all of your life.

Moon Conjunct Venus:

Because of your great sense of aesthetics, you could do well with artistic, creative and musical projects or anything else that allows you to freely apply your good taste. You like to be surrounded by a beautiful and harmonious environment and are inclined to comfort and luxuries. You will have to fight against the tendency to laziness, stagnation and self-indulgence.

Moon Conjunct Mars:

You are prepared to undertake risky tasks or those that require great physical effort. You have a strong will and do not ever want to be in second place. You tend to impose your opinions on others and can be a leader in any group. You are apt to lose patience easily with people who are very passive or those who act rudely. This astrological aspect could bring rivalries and a dislike for women.

Moon Trine Neptune:

Throughout your life you are likely to have many psychic experiences. You have to learn to rely on your intuition and to develop your spirituality. You are attracted to the hidden sciences and will have great success in anything where you could apply your perceptive powers. You also have ability for music, art, the theater and dance.

Moon Sextile Pluto:

You are very sure of yourself and do everything authoritatively. You could be a leader in groups or work in places with a large number of people. You are protective and have the necessary strength to help those who need it. You have the ability to regenerate and restore yourself completely after any crisis you may encounter.

HIDDEN TALENTS: Leo on 12th house cusp

You will have to increase your self-esteem, confidence and power of decision. You are likely to have inhibitions that don't allow you to freely express or act on your ideas. You are afraid of your own power and aggressiveness, which lowers your energy or enthusiasm. You have a tendency to think too much before acting, and most of the time this restricts your own impulse. You have to learn to relax, to amuse yourself more, to laugh about your own mistakes and to express your sense of humor openly. You also may not use your creativity and artistic talent sufficiently.

This influence could bring confrontations with powerful enemies, you could have problems with authority or encounter dangerous situations with large animals.

Sun in 12th house:

Your wasted talent is your ability to be a leader, to undertake something on your own and to project your ideas. You are afraid of your own power and this could lead you to depend on others, to lose in business, or to occupy positions of little advancement where you are not happy. You will have to increase your self-esteem and the confidence in your own ambitions.

Mercury in 12th house:

Your wasted talent is your intellectual capacity. You are very reserved and keep your ideas secret. You find it difficult to express yourself freely; you probably are insecure about your own ideas and feel that your subjects are criticized or rejected. You have to study, read and inform yourself; this will give you a better foundation and at the same time more security in communicating.

Uranus in 12th house:

Your wasted talent is the high degree of creativity you have. You probably are very different from others and tend to avoid expressing many of your real opinions, thereby wasting to a great degree your inventive potential. You are very intellectual, mystical and reserved; you are well suited for investigative projects or any other profession that is developed behind the scene.

Pluto in 12th house:

Your wasted talent is your capacity to be a leader and to direct others. You have a complex emotional life with many unexpected and unconscious reactions. You are reluctant to face changes in your life and prefer to cling to the past. Because of this, you work better behind the scenes in touch with needy people, where you will be able to show your ability to understand the psychological problems of others. If you don't learn to alleviate your inner stress, you could suffer some mental or physical ailments that are difficult to diagnose.

Chapter 3 Expansion (Jupiter) and retraction (Saturn). To give and to receive.

EXPANSION: Jupiter in Taurus

Your sense of expansion manifests through your financial dealings. You have a deep understanding of the true value of things. You are very good in matters of money and would do well in your own business, but just as well working for others. Your growth in life is bound to your administrative ability. You like the good life and luxuries; your expensive tastes could lead to self-indulgence and squandering. You are quite stubborn and dislike being pushed.

Jupiter in 9th house:

You are interested in religion and philosophy, enjoy life abroad, other countries, cultures and languages, and definitely should travel. You would be very happy and could do well in a different country from that of your birth. If you don't settle in another place, you thoroughly enjoy each of your trips. A college education will be very important in your life; you could reach a doctorate or other outstanding title in your profession. Expansion of your life is related to the level of your knowledge.

Jupiter Sextile Venus:

You have a strong sense of justice and harmony. You tend to have an extensive social life and will receive support and cooperation any time you need it. You have a strong sense of aesthetics that will be reflected in your things, and you enjoy a well decorated, comfortable and warm environment without noises. Your positive attitude will bring you luck in general, and you are likely to obtain what you want without much effort. Because of this, you also could become a little lazy.

Jupiter Square Saturn:

You will have to learn to recognize your limitations and to direct your energies in a more orderly fashion. You probably devalue your own potential and are not sure about reaching your goals. Success comes late in life, and sometimes you feel that you never get true recognition. You are realistic and materialistic, but lack direction and drive. There is an imbalance between your expansion and seclusion principle, between giving and receiving. You will have to reflect on this and adopt a more balanced attitude.

RETRACTION: Saturn in Pisces

The inhibition principle affects your ability to assume responsibilities and to accept reality as it is. You are very imaginative, tend to live in the past and may have difficulties dealing with the present. You have great emotional understanding and humility and are willing to work with and for the underdog or those who are friendless. You need quiet and solitude to discover your abilities and would do well in the fields of literature, investigation or metaphysics. You take life too seriously and react emotionally to everything. It is important for you to practice emotional detachment, to face life more realistically, and to overcome your inner fears that could lead you to escape your responsibilities.

Saturn in 6th house:

You are efficient, careful and reliable and tend to worry about your job. You take everything seriously and sometimes feel that you are indispensable and push yourself at the cost of your health. Because of your great sense of responsibility, you don't enjoy life as much as others do. You are very demanding, and it isn't easy for you to find work that complies with all of your expectations. Disagreements with your bosses or co-workers are likely. Your principal frustration will be that of not finding work that makes you completely happy. You can't imagine working and enjoying yourself at the same time, and will always have complaints about people or the job you perform. Regardless, in some companies you may be given great recognition of your ability and occupational response.

Success in life depends to a great extent on the balance between giving and receiving, expanding and retracting. Even dwelling on the one and only failure you may have had is like not attempting anything.

Chapter 4 Finances, source of income. Work in relation to your employment.

Described below are some possible sources of income. They may coincide, or not relate at all to your professional vocation.

FINANCES: Libra on 2nd house cusp

Your financial balance may depend to a large extent on your marriage or partnerships. There is a possibility of relating to wealthy people who will help to solve your financial problems, but this would generate a strong dependency on them. You have many talents, but need the support of someone close to advance in the material world. You are likely to change jobs several times.

You could earn money through social activities such as public relations or those relating to art, beauty, decoration and the world of aesthetics in general.

Ruler of 2nd house in 11th house:

Your income is closely linked with those of friends, your relationships, or to activities that you perform in certain social groups. You are likely to have influential friends who will help you to improve your income. There is a possibility of earning money through administrative or political positions in social organizations.

Earning money is in direct relationship to our self-esteem. If we consider ourselves valuable, money flows and comes into our lives. Work done with love and pleasure doesn't weigh us down and offers a better profit.

WORK IN RELATION TO YOUR EMPLOYMENT: Aquarius on 6th house cusp

Your work in relationship to your employment will be expressed by your originality and inventiveness. You are very intelligent and have the ability to find new solutions to problems that are presented. In general, you seek recognition for your aptitudes or service, and if you are unable to receive it, you may change jobs several times. You may have trouble relating to your co-workers, as you may find them to be different than you are. You are more comfortable in occupational positions that bring you in contact with the public and permit you to communicate freely.

Saturn in 6th house:

You are very responsible and confident in your work. Your superiors as well as your co-workers will completely rely on you. You have ability to organize, direct others and you comply with the tasks that are entrusted to you. In spite of being very efficient, you never seem to be completely happy with the position you occupy, because you have an inner feeling that you could accomplish more. You may become frustrated waiting for recognition. You have to increase the confidence in yourself and demand the remuneration you deserve according to the responsibilities you assume.

Chapter 5

Your creativity and recreational activities.

Other skills and hobbies.

Hobbies are also part of our personality and through them, we express to a great extent our creative ability. It is important to enjoy our leisure activities and to complement them with our work or profession to reach greater balance. In our culture, we tend to place importance only on that which brings us money, thereby neglecting the expression of important parts of our personality.

YOUR CREATIVITY: Capricorn on 5th house cusp

Your favorite recreational activities will be those that bring you in touch with earth and nature. Because of your responsible and serious attitude, you may find it difficult to allow yourself pleasure and amusement. You have to increase your leisure activities and permit yourself to have more time for distractions. You may be interested in intellectual activities, reading, writing, exchanging ideas, or investigating a special subject. Your creativity is stimulated by silence; you need to withdraw from others in order to find yourself. Meditation or any other technique of relaxation will help you to draw more profit from your own creativity.

Chapter 6

Your vocation, profession, probability of success and social recognition.

Gemini MC

Your destiny will lead you down different roads, seeking constant change and you will probably have more than one profession. Your great intelligence will allow you to excel in everything you start, even though you may not have received a complete education. You have nice behavior, a good memory, a persuasive capability and wit, but boredom with routine and inconstancy will be your worst problems. That is why you will need to choose a profession that will allow you to be in contact with different people, to go to different places and to vary your schedules. Communication should never be missing in your life, as that is what is most fulfilling for you. Also, people can have a strong influence on you, and some of your changes could be suggested by your family, friends or mate.

Your career choice could be one of the following professions (or all of them!): journalist, speaker, travel agent, merchant, writer, teacher, transportation, comedian, teacher of languages, translator, commentator, critic etc., and any other profession which would allow you to be an intermediary.

Ruler of 10th house in 12th house:

Your professional success is related to your ability to serve others behind the scenes.

Your profession is likely to be performed behind closed doors or in private. This position favors professions that require power behind the throne; that is to say that you make suggestions or decisions without conferring with the public. Activities linked to secret information, medicine or investigations would be very favorable.
